PETROGRAD, June 10.—The Russian bear is now a tiger.

That is the characterization of men who saw the legions of General Brus-siloff shoot through the Austrian front, from the Pripiet marshes to Pruth at will, destroying in a day complicated defenses which took the Austrians months to build.

The Austrian casualties today are estimated at 150,000.

Seventy-eight thousand five hundred and forty-eight prisoners were taken by actual count.

On the whole front General Brus-siloff is using youths who charge with amazing speed and are fearless, cool and most courageous. They quickly spread planks and ladders over the high Austrian entanglements.

It is estimated that 700,000 Austrians are defending the eastern front.

Attackers Near Verdun
PARIS, June 10.—German heavy shells today are raining on Forts Sou-ville and Tavenner, between Vaux and Verdun, today's official communiqué says.

BERLIN, June 10.—West of Vaux the Germans have captured 500 French and twenty-two machine guns.

'MOUNTAIN DEW' STILL FOUND IN ANGEL CITY

LOS ANGELES, June 10.—In searching the premises at 2751 Pomeroy avenue for stolen tires yesterday, police detectives got a whiff of a strange odor, and an inkling of suspicious conditions which led them to the discovery of a whiskey still.

Presiding over this unexpected plant for the creation of strong drink—114 proof—was Isidore Blumenthal, who, judging from his appearance, might relevantly answer to the roll call in a Kentucky "moonshine" district.

When this middle-aged citizen heard and saw the door smashed in under the blows given it by Detectives Williams and Ingram, he leaped from his place beside the steaming still, raised his crutch over his head and tried to repel the invaders.

Failing to do this, he turned swiftly to his still and tried to destroy it, but the officers persisted to destroy the evidence for a case in court by dragging him from the shack.

PARKER, LOUISIANA, IS NOMINATED FOR VICE PRESIDENCY

Compromise Battle Is Fought
To Last By Perkins,
But In Vain

AUDITORIUM, Chicago, June 10.—Roosevelt late today refused to accept the Progressive nomination at this time. At 5 o'clock the Progressives adjourned.

AUDITORIUM, CHICAGO, June 10.—
The Progressives nominated John M. Parker of Louisiana for vice-president.

At 4:07 p. m., William Flynn of Pennsylvania offered a resolution that the National committee be empowered to fill any vacancy on the ticket. This was an emergency measure in the event that Roosevelt declined to run.
At 4:09 p. m., Flynn's motion was adopted.

OYSTER BAY, June 10.—"I have no statement to make at present," Colonel Roosevelt said.

BY H. L. RENNICK
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
AUDITORIUM, CHICAGO, June 10.—
Theodore Roosevelt was nominated as the Progressive candidate for President of the United States by acclamation in the Progressive National Convention at 12:33 o'clock this afternoon.

The nomination came in the face of the Colonel's own recommendation that the Progressives and Republicans unite on Senator Lodge.

Bedlam broke loose in the Auditorium as Chairman Robins suspended rules and made the nomination by acclamation, and announced the result all within one minute.

Fights for Compromise
To the very last instant George W.
Perkins fought for a compromise.

Gov. Hiram Johnson of California, who probably will be the Progressive vice-presidential candidate, seconded the nominating speech for the Colonel after Bainbridge Colby of New York had made the nominating speech.

Anxious to nominate before the Republicans had begun the nomination of Hughes, Gov. Johnson and Colby urged haste and spoke but a few minutes.

They were jockeyed about, however, while awaiting word from the Republicans, so that they did not nominate until 12:33, two minutes after Hughes was nominated by the Republicans in the Coliseum.

PARLEY RESULTS IN T. R.
BEING EXCLUDED
CHICAGO, June 10.—George W. Perkins today reported on a meeting of the Progressive and Republican committeemen, stating that the Republicans peace conference had promised definitely of an amalgamation which did not include the name of Roosevelt.

Then he hurried to a conference with his state leaders, the verdict of which he was to take back to the conference.

The amalgamation proposition dealt solely with the presidential nomination. Read Smoot was detailed to put it into writing. The assumption was that the Republicans merely offered the Progressives Hughes as a unity candidate.

will confer on wages, it was decided today. It is expected that the conferences will require a month.

bearer of the Republican party at Chicago today, and Theodore Roosevelt, nominated by the Progressives. Hughes was nominated at 12:31, and Roosevelt at 12:32.

Hughes' Course If Named Is Cause of Speculation

WASHINGTON, June 10.—"What shall he do if he gets it?" was the question every one was asking today while considering the likelihood of Justice Hughes accepting the Republican nomination.

Speculation was rife as to whether he would resign immediately if he accepted, leaving his decisions to be read next Monday when the Supreme Court convenes, or would merely announce his resignation to take effect some time after next Monday.

Many believed that he would not delay his resignation a second longer than was necessary.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 10.—The theory that Marian Lambert, the high school girl for whose murder Will H.

covery of a witness who it is reported saw Marian in the high school laboratory examining various poisons the

GEN. JOFFRE ATTENDS MEETING IN LONDON

LONDON, June 10.—General Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, is in London. He attended an important conference at the Foreign Office with Paul Cambon, the French ambassador; Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, and the members of the war council.

The following official statement has been given out here:
"Premier Briand, General Roques,

Commandant Thouzelier, arrived in London this morning to confer with the British ministers and their military advisers."

WILSON ACCEPTS RESIGNATION OF JUSTICE

WASHINGTON, June 10.

At 3:30 p. m. today Chas.

E. Hughes resigned from the supreme court. President

Wilson accepted the resignation of the Justice. The Republican platform was fully endorsed by Hughes.

COLISEUM, Chicago, June 10.—The Republicans nominated Hughes and Fairbanks in their convention. Fairbanks was elected on one ballot.

The convention ignored a suggestion from Col. Roosevelt that Senator Lodge might be a compromise candidate.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 10.—

Charles Warren Fairbanks said that he had not yet decided to accept the nomination.

JUSTICE HUGHES RESIGNS
FROM BENCH

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Justice Hughes' resignation message this atternoon read:

"To the President:
"I hereby resign office as associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. I am, sir,
"Respectfully yours,
"CHARLES EVANS HUGHES."

The President accepted Hughes' resignation as follows:
"Dear Mr. Justice Hughes:
"I am in receipt of your letter of resignation and feel constrained to yield to your desire. I therefore accept your resignation as justice of the supreme court, to take effect at once.

Sincerely,
"WOODROW WILSON."

COLISEUM, Chicago, June 10.—
Charles Evans Hughes was chosen the Republican standard bearer by the Republican national convention this afternoon on the third ballot, his vote being 949 1/2 out of a possible 987.

The selection of Hughes came after Roosevelt made a last hour attempt to swing a compromise candidate for both his own Bull Moose party and the G. O. P.

Roosevelt received eighteen votes, Weeks three, La Follette five, and Lodge seven, the official count of the third ballot showed.

Celebration
The selection of Hughes, the "salient man" of present day American politics was celebrated by the usual convention uproar and parade of states through the hall.

There were brief but roof-raising bits of applause and then everybody stood up, talked and indulged in handclapping.

The enthusiasm of the Californians with their state banner was great.
They led the parade of the states
through the hall.
Hughes' nomination on an early ballot was indicated as early as midnight when Sherman withdrew, asking that his votes favor Hughes.

John Wanamaker said: "Speaking for the business men of the convention, I believe the choice of Hughes will be favorable and give us the greatest victory we ever had."

Kentucky seconded Ohio's motion to nominate Fairbanks.
Burton Withdraws
Massachusetts voted 32 of her 36 votes for Hughes. Governor McCall arose to explain that while the delegates appreciated the fitness of Senator Lodge, who was suggested by Roosevelt, they nevertheless felt the spirit of the convention was for Hughes. Governor Willing of Ohio

concluded in withdrawing Burton's name.
Hughes' name was given a great but not a long continued demonstration, and then the convention got down to the nomination of a vice-president. When Harding announced that the order of business was to select a running-mate for Hughes there was a chorus of shouts for Fairbanks, Borah and others.

Roll Call
The roll-call then proceeded. Every state passed down to Colorado, which yielded to Pennsylvania. John Wanamaker of Philadelphia was recognized as the speaker for the Keystone state. He nominated Chas. W. Fairbanks.
Wanamaker said: "As a business man having a close acquaintance with him; with his systematic plans of work, his Republicanism and his height—this convention being composed of tall men—I think he is the logical man."

HUGHES' CAMPAIGN MANAGER NEXT BUSINESS UP
CHICAGO, June 10.—The Republican national convention will meet Monday to elect a chairman who will conduct Hughes' campaign. There is a strong feeling that Charles P. Hilles should be re-elected but it is believed that if Frank Hitchcock launches a strong enough campaign he will be chosen. Hitchcock said today he was not a candidate for chairman.

BORAH, FAIRBANKS LOOM AS RUNNING MATE CHOICE
COLISEUM, CHICAGO, June 10.—Sentiment for vice-president early today was rapidly crystallizing on Borah and Fairbanks. The choice was largely geographical.
Borah is enthusiastically liked by the Progressives, but he has always refused to leave the G. O. P. ranks. For two days he had refused to yield to strong pressure urging him to run, but it was the belief of his friends in both parties that if he received a whirlwind nomination the convention would accept him before he could protest.

Fairbanks had also sent out word that he would not accept the nomination for vice-president, but this was not taken as final. No doubt the delegates were desirous of wanting to put their man over, pick a running mate and then return home.
The Progressives were expected to mark time.

HUGHES LEADS AT END OF FIRST BALLOT
COLISEUM, CHICAGO, June 10.—Following an orgy of nine hours and twenty-eight minutes of speechmaking, the Republican convention began balloting at 7:28 last night. Charles E. Hughes' lead was manifest almost immediately, he receiving, on the first ballot, 233 1/2 votes. John W. Weeks of Massachusetts was his next competitor with 105. Elihu Root followed with 103. Roosevelt received 65. The remaining ballots were scattered among favorite sons.

At the end of the second ballot which closed the G. O. P. convention last night, Hughes was well in the lead, having 328 1/2 votes, an increase of 75 as against the first ballot. Root was second with 98 1/2, and Roosevelt gained 16. When the convention adjourned Hughes lacked 16 1/2 votes of the number needed to give him the nomination.
An effort was made at the end of the second ballot by the Hughes forces to pass across a third ballot but they were overruled and adjournment was taken until 11 o'clock this morning.

SECOND PEACE PARLEY IS AGAIN RESULTLESS
CHICAGO, June 10.—The second parley between the Progressive and Republican committees broke up shortly after 2 o'clock this morning, no decision having been reached. The conference was scheduled to be resumed at 9 o'clock this morning.

From neither side came any expressed hope of a development that would upset what last night was expected on every hand, the nomination of Justice Hughes at the Coliseum and of Colonel Roosevelt at the Auditorium.

T. R. TOLD MOOSE WOULD NAME HIM TODAY
CHICAGO, June 10.—When told by telephone last night by a close friend that in all probability the Progressives would nominate him today, Colonel Roosevelt replied that if this was to be, it must be and he was resigned to his fate.

DEFENSE PARADE IN SEATTLE IS ON TODAY

SEATTLE, Wash., June 10.—Seattle today marched for preparedness. A three-hour procession of 25,000 civilians tramped down Pike street in military formation.
The parade was conducted along the same lines as that in New York on May 13.

There were no gay banners, floats, gaudy decorations or uniforms. Every marcher carried a flag. There were men from every walk of life, and several columns of women and children. Members of the G. A. R. and the Ladies of the G. A. R. rode in automobiles.

He understands and supports preparedness in the upbuilding of the navy and army and the protection of the Panama Canal.

COUNTY HORSESHOERS MET HERE LAST NIGHT

Horseshoers of Orange county to the number of about thirty-five met last night at the Beaver shoeing shop on French street for a general discussion of matters pertaining to their business. The Orange County Blacksmith and Horseshoers' Protective Association was organized a few weeks ago. Blacksmiths as yet have not become identified with the association, but will do so a little later. John Gardner of Fullerton is president of the horseshoers' organization and presided at last night's meeting. The members of the association have gotten together for mutual benefit, and indications are that the membership will include every one engaged in the occupation in the county. Practically all have become identified, and several horse shoers just over the county line who want to become identified with the Orange county association were present last night and requested that they be taken in. This is now under consideration by the board of directors.
The directors will meet in Anaheim next Monday night, when by-laws will be presented and considered. At this meeting arrangements will also be made for a meeting in Santa Ana at which a representative of one of the supply houses in Los Angeles will make an address. A hall will be procured for this meeting.

HOW TO GET RID OF A COLD
—Summer colds are serious. Read how C. E. Summers, Holdrege, Neb., got rid of his: "I contracted a severe cough and cold and could hardly sleep. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and the very first dose relieved me. I took a second dose before going to bed and can truthfully say I did not cough all night. By using as directed the next two days my cough was entirely cured and I give Foley's Honey and Tar full credit for my speedy recovery." Foley's always soothes and heals. Children love it. AMUSEMENTS

Grand Opera House
Though, as he puts it, Tyrone Power has not heard the sound of his own voice in over a year, the speaking stage has by no means forgotten the sound of that deep-toned organ, and it is gratifying to the theatergoers of this city to know that he will appear at the Grand Opera House on Monday, June 12, in "The Servant in the House."
It is interesting to know that the name Tyrone Power was made famous by his grandfather, who bore it from 1795 to 1841.
During his years on the stage, Mr. Power has played a wide variety of parts, and has thereby earned for himself the reputation of being one of the most versatile actors of the time. Mr. Power's impersonations run from such characters as Caliban in "The Tempest" to the Dragoon in "The Servant in the House," from Sir Oliver Surcouf in "The School for Scandal" to Othello or Brutus. Perhaps the characterizations which have made him most celebrated are those of the Marquis de Steyne in "Becky Sharp," in which he appeared with Mrs. Fiske; Judas, in "Mary of Magdala," also with Mrs. Fiske; Brutus, first in the Faversham production of "Julius Caesar," and later with his own company; Arnes Posket in Pinero's delightful farce, "The Magistrate"; and the Dragoon in Charles Rann Kennedy's "The Servant in the House," which he gives here.

At Clune's
"Cabiria," one of the greatest and most spectacular film creations ever brought to Santa Ana, will be shown Monday and Tuesday at Clune's.
Many of the scenes are of a kind to capture the memory and hold it enthralled. We see Hannibal leading the Carthaginians, foot soldiers, cavalry, elephants, sheep and trains, over the snow and ice of the winter Alps in the march that surprised Rome. In opposition there is the lovely sunset scene of the camel caravan on the Sahara. Indoors there are marble rooms, fountains or great courts with bizarre columns in the form of elephants or of giant cats. These are not stage sets, but solid structures as big as many of our public buildings. The production is said to have cost $250,000, and the expense proves it, self right on the film.
The romantic story, which is partly historical, begins with the saving of Cabiria, a beautiful Sicilian child of 5 years, by her nurse on the day when Catania, a city in Sicily, is nearly destroyed by an eruption of Mount Aetna. The nurse and child escape from the ruined city and are about to be sacrificed to Moloch, when rescued by Fulvio, a young Roman, and his servant, Maciste. The escape of the child and her subsequent career form the plot of D'Annunzio's wonderful play.

LABOR LEADERS AGAIN ASK AID FOR DANBURY HATTERS; JUNE 15, SET
WASHINGTON, June 10.—Because only $132,138.55 of the needed $250,000 was subscribed by American laboring men to pay the judgment against the homes of the aged Danbury hatters in the famous Danbury boycott case, the American Federation has named June 15 as the day upon which labor should contribute the needed $117,000 additional.

ASKS GUARDIAN BE APPOINTED

Control of Property of Mrs. Martha S. Vaughan Brought to Issue In Petition

A petition has been filed in the superior court asking that George Shaffer, prominent West Orange rancher, be appointed guardian of the person and estate of Mrs. Martha Shaffer Vaughan, who lives on North Main street, outside the city limits.
Mrs. Vaughan's property is reported to have been looked after by her husband, L. O. Vaughan, to whom Mrs. Shaffer was married about two years ago. Among valuable pieces of property owned by Mrs. Vaughan is the Temple Theater in Santa Ana.
The guardianship petition was filed by Attorneys Williams & Rutan and Clyde Bishop. C. T. Kirk is the petitioner. Kirk is the husband of Elizabeth Kirk, a niece of Mrs. Vaughan. The petition states that Mrs. Vaughan, now 72 years old, is incompetent to care for her property interests. It is stated that she has suffered a stroke of apoplexy, and her health is such that her mind has been weakened. The petition asks that George Shaffer, a nephew of Mrs. Vaughan, be appointed as guardian of her person and property.

Suits for Divorce
Catherine E. Leieritz of Delhi, better known as Mrs. Kate Meador, has brought suit for divorce against J. William Leieritz on the ground of failure to provide and desertion. W. F. Heathman is attorney for the plaintiff, who asks that she be allowed to resume her former name, Meador. The complaint alleges that Leieritz is an able bodied man, but through idleness, profligacy and dissipation has not earned a living for his wife.

C. H. Brooks has brought suit for divorce against Henrietta P. Brooks, desertion being the ground. H. C. Head is attorney for the plaintiff.

Suit Over Auto
Charles L. Davis, garage owner of Santa Ana, has brought suit against E. J. Marks of Fullerton for possession of an Auburn automobile delivered to Marks by Irwin Weaver, who disappeared after he got $550 cash from Marks for the machine. In the deal Marks traded in an old machine. The complaint, filed by Attorney Clyde Bishop, alleges the Auburn to be worth $1210. Judgment for possession of the machine or $1210 and for $500 damages is asked.

Jackson Heirs
The first intimation at the courthouse as to the state in which the set of claimants represented by Attorney C. D. Swanner in the contest for the $15,000 estate left by John Jackson, pioneer government scout, came yesterday when orders for three depositions were signed by Judge Thomas upon affidavits presented by Swanner. The claimants live in Louisiana.
Another set of claimants lived in Missouri. They assert that the John Jackson who died here was their relative. The John Jackson who was a relative of the Louisiana people cannot be the same man who is claimed by the Missourians to be their long lost uncle.

Under the order of court depositions of Eva J. Bond and Mrs. A. C. Collins are to be taken in Parish of Rapides, La., and the deposition of Daisy E. Miller in Parish of Orleans, La.

ENTRIES COMING IN RAPIDLY FOR Y. M. C. A. CAMP AT CATALINA

Although it was announced on Thursday that applicants would be received for the Y. M. C. A. Camp at Catalina from July 3 to 15, already nearly half of the number allotted to Orange county have signed up, twenty-two boys having given in their names and paid their application fee.
The county committee of the Y. M. C. A., realizing that if necessary the entire fifty for the camp would be secured in Santa Ana, limited the number to be taken to 20. Thirty will be taken from other points of the county. Already seventeen of this twenty have indicated their intention of going. This limit will hold till the 22nd when, if the rest of the county has not responded with thirty, Santa Ana boys will get another chance.
Tustin, Talbert and Garden Grove have representatives already signed up.

REV. FRANCIS WATRY ATTENDS NATIONAL MEETING OF CHURCH

Rev. Francis Watry, former pastor of the Unitarian church of Santa Ana, returned yesterday from Boston, Mass., where he attended a conference of Unitarians, the conference being known as the Boston May Meeting. This gathering is one having largely to do with the financial condition of the church. Reports showed finances in excellent condition. Several endowments were received during the past year. Meetings were held in Tremont Temple, about 2000 being present.
While in Boston, Rev. Watry preached in King's Chapel, which is 230 years old.
Going East, Rev. Watry went by way of New Orleans. He went by boat from New Orleans to Boston, being five days and nights on the water. Two days of stifling heat were encountered on the trip.
"Business is booming in the east," said Rev. Watry, "owing to war conditions."

CITY TO BE GAY WITH FLAGS ON FIESTA NIGHT; PLANS GROW

As Date Draws Near, Activity
Of Boosters Grows More Intense

Keep your shop window lights and porch lights lighted on the evening of Santa Ana's Fiesta de Luz, June 15. "Decorate—especially with flags, your store fronts and your homes. Do this Tuesday, in order that the flags will be in place on Wednesday, which is the nation's Flag Day, and keep the decorations in place, in order that they may add to the attractiveness of Santa Ana on Fiesta night."

These are the suggestions that are being made by the Chamber of Commerce Fiesta committee.

Many local merchants already have made plans for elaborate decorations and it is practically assured that the city will present a gala appearance on Flag Day and on Fiesta day. The offer of a cup by E. B. Smith for the best decorated building or store front has greatly stimulated interest in decorating.

Entries Still Coming
The number of entries continues to grow. Considerably more than eighty floats, tableaux, marching organizations and other features have been secured to date.

Chairman R. L. Bisby of the Fiesta committee today received word that the Rodeo company, which will be at Anaheim on July 3 and 4, will have a big representation of cowboys and cowgirls in the Fiesta parade.

M. F. Dolley of the Blue Front stables has entered a string of eight thoroughbred racing horses. The animals will be ridden by jockeys in uniform.

The Epworth League of the First M. E. church will be represented by a pleasing float.

Judges Appointed
Frank P. Clarkson, J. P. Baumgartner and Mrs. A. J. Lawton today were appointed a committee to judge the floats.

Monday's automobile tour through Orange county, which will boost the Fiesta, promises to be one of the most successful jaunts of the kind ever arranged in this locality.

The Scotch bag-pipers of Los Angeles have been secured to ride in the

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS ISSUE ARIEL

PART OF THE ARIEL STAFF
Eunice Jones, Alumni. Basil Smith, Joshes. Margaret Blake, Society.
Marvin Greathouse, Business Mgr. Bernard Packard, Editor-in-Chief.
Clarence Strong, Art. Florence Breckenridge, Exchanges. Marjorie Shaw, Literary.

The Ariel is out.

The Ariel, published annually by the students of the Santa Ana High School, for 1916, is one that goes into the high school history as one of exceeding excellence.

The Ariel this year is of particular interest to alumni. The issue is dedicated to the alumni, and the frontispiece contains pictures of several officers of the Alumni Association, of which John A. McAdams is president. A complete list of the graduates of the high school since the first diploma was issued in 1893 is given.

At first glance at the Ariel, one is impressed with the high standard of its appearance. The cover is of heavy mottled blue cover paper. The book is printed upon heavy book paper, and throughout the workmanship is the acme of the printer's art. Coming from the Register's presses, with A. G. Flagg and G. P. Campbell in charge of the work, the publication is indeed a credit to the students who got out the book, as well as to the printers who did the work.

Dozens of cuts have been used in procession, which will assemble in front of the city hall beginning at 9 o'clock, and which will start promptly at 9:30.

More than twenty-five automobiles have been secured for the county booster trip, and it is expected that many others will be in line when the jaunt begins.

"We want as good a representation as possible," said Chairman Bisby today. "Everyone will have a good time. Horns will be supplied to all taking part and there is no chance of a dull moment at any time during the day."

Urges All to Join
"All who possibly can should join in the booster parade Monday. We are anxious to let the county know that Santa Ana wants to be host to thousands on Fiesta night and wants to show everyone a royal good time."

"Be on hand at the city hall at 9 o'clock Monday morning. Be prepared to have a jolly outing yourself and at the same time help boost the attendance at the Fiesta," Bisby urges.

The booster automobilists will take luncheon at Hotel Valencia, Anaheim. Queen Stein's wardrobe is on display in the windows of the Rankin Dry Goods Company and is attracting a great amount of attention. The outfit is awe-inspiring, to say the least, and it is a sample of what Fiesta visitors may expect to see in the rest of the comic section of the parade. A riot of laughter will greet the triumphal regal progress of the rotund Queen Stein and "her" entourage.

Interest in Jitney Ball
Those who like to trip the light fantastic are looking forward with pleasure to the Fiesta de Luz Jitney Ball, which A. G. Flagg and Fred Chapman will stage on parade night.

"Billy" Meacham of Anaheim will be there with his violin, an announcement that thrills the devotees of the art of Terpsichore, as Meacham's ability as a musician is well known. Four other musicians will complete the orchestra.

An admission price of 10 cents for each person will be charged, each admission ticket entitling the bearer to two dances. The Jitney Ball is being given merely for the purpose of aiding in the success of the Fiesta and the small prices charged are merely to help defray expenses.

Interest in the Jitney Ball is keen and a huge crowd is expected.

Fire Department Active

The Santa Ana fire department is entering into the Fiesta spirit with a vim. The department will show first in its section, the old-time equipment used here and the men will not be in uniform. Then will come the two new fire trucks, the men dressed in their present-day uniforms.

the book, making up a record of student life never to be forgotten. The art work is superior to much of that appearing in college annuals.

The seniors are given the prominence in the annual that is due a graduating class. Pictures of all the members of graduating class, the class history by Miss Laura Davis, the class prophecy by Miss Eunice Jones—these and other features go to make the book of surpassing value to those who this year become alumni of Santa Ana's splendid educational institution.

Prose and poetry, reflecting the literary effects of the students of the high school, are pleasing. The originality of the work, the construction and the literary standard are of a high order.

Dozens of snap-shots of high school students are included. These are a feature that go to give life and pep to the pages of the annual. The Joshes, many of which are understood best by those intimate with the doings of the year, are apparently well selected and fitting.

Athletics, debating, the juniors, the

In order successfully to carry out the plan the Santa Ana department found that it would need more men. The Orange department was asked to participate and the Orange fire-fighters courteously and enthusiastically agreed to aid.

While the two Santa Ana fire trucks are taking part in the parade there will be two men of the department at the fire hall and a man with a motorcycle. Should an alarm be sounded the man on the motor will speed to the trucks in the parade line and the equipment will respond to the alarm at once.

SAYS WAR IN EUROPE SIGN OF WORLD'S END

That the great war in Europe is a sign of the coming of Jesus Christ, the second time, was the leading theme of Evangelist P. E. Brant's illustrated lecture which he delivered last night before a large and enthusiastic audience in the cotton tabernacle, where Seventh Day Adventists' meetings are being conducted, at Fifth and Broadway. The speaker also declared that the tremendous preparation for war which has been made by the great nations during the last few years and the ever increasing cry for universal peace and world federation of nations, were signs of the end of the world.

As ground for his statements, many texts of Scripture were used, among them the following: Joel 3:9-11, Isaiah 2:24, 1 Thessalonians 5:15. Tonight the subject to be considered is, "The Greatest Event of the Twentieth Century;" Sunday night, "A Remarkable Prophecy Accurately Fulfilled."

sophomores, the freshmen, the junior college, organizations, society, the editorials—all of the departments are dealt with in an interesting manner throughout, furnishing a year-book of unusual attractiveness.

The Ariel staff is headed by Bernard Packard as editor-in-chief and Marvin Greathouse as business manager. Douglass McPhoe is associate editor; Marjorie Shaw, literary; Ulysses Schauer, debating, and oratory; Donald Winans, athletics; Julia Pavich, athletics; Margaret Blake, society; Eunice Jones, alumni; Cammie Mitchell, organizations; Klein Wolford, assistant business manager; Blanche Hankins, school notes; Basil Smith, Joshes; Mildred Newel, typist; Hazel Newman, assistant typist; Clarence Strong, art; Florence Breckenridge, exchanges. Miss M. Elizabeth Wyant was faculty adviser in the literary department, and J. R. Baker faculty adviser in the business management.

The price charged for the Ariel is seventy-five cents, and to any person the least bit interested the book is more than worth the price.

RAY PETTY IS A NEW YORK PASTOR

Rev. A. Ray Petty, well known in Santa Ana, has been unanimously called as pastor of the Judson Memorial Baptist Church, Washington Square South, New York City. For the last six months Rev. Petty has been acting pastor of the church. He has accepted the call which comes to him, not only from the congregation, but from the Baptist City Mission Society. He succeeds the late Rev. Dr. Edward Judson, who built the edifice in memory of his father, Adoniram Judson, the first Protestant missionary to Burma.

Rev. Petty labored for seven years on the Pacific Coast, most of the time in Los Angeles, where he was long at the head of the boys' work in Temple Baptist Church.

He lived in Santa Ana as a boy when his father was pastor of the First Baptist Church here. For a time he was a Y. M. C. A. secretary here. He married Miss Nan Tedford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tedford of Santa Ana. Rev. Petty's success in New York City is of intense interest to a large number of his and his wife's friends here.

AUTO CLUB SHOWS BIG INCREASE IN NINE MONTHS

Report of Secretary Recites Saving of $28,315 to Members Carry Insurance

Increasing the membership from 80 to 457 in nine months is evidence that the Orange County Automobile Club is popular with automobile owners and that the management has been active. The fact that this has been accomplished was brought out in the annual report of A. S. Ralph, secretary, at the annual meeting held Thursday evening. Another point of considerable interest brought out in that those of the members who have availed themselves of the insurance feature have been saved $28,315.

The club and insurance departments are constructed under the name of the Automobile Club of Orange County and the Automobile Indemnity Exchange of Orange County.

Report of the secretary of the club showed that there were 457 members in good standing as the result of the first year's campaign for membership.

The showing of the insurance department of the club, which is officially known as the Automobile Indemnity Exchange of Orange County, is a remarkable one for the time it has been in operation. The first policies of the exchange were issued September 17, 1915, and the total number issued to date is 352.

Cost of Insurance
The cost of this insurance to the members has been $4044.95. Had this amount of insurance been written by stock companies under the usual conditions the cost to the members would have been $32,360. This means that there has been a saving to the members of $28,315.

The above showing should be a convincing proof that the policy of the club in only insuring private pleasure cars and requiring all members to be residents of Orange county is the means of keeping the cost of insurance down to such a low figure. The policy covers wherever the car is driven under usual automobile policy conditions, against fire, theft, collision and property damage.

Claims Paid

Thirty claims on account of collision, property damage and theft have been paid by the exchange, amounting to $648.22. These were paid to the following members: H. O. Henderson, J. E. Huffman, A. Thomas, E. T. McAdams, E. S. Morrow, A. S. Ralph, C. E. Ralph, C. E. Lush, H. J. Lowe, Max Weinberg, J. F. Craemer, J. R. Porter, G. E. Norton, B. C. Norton, B. C. Roberts, F. A. Blake, W. M. Wellman, Ray Leslie, G. E. Ryan, I. Weinberg, Charles S. Kendall, A. Worswick, F. A. Blake, J. H. Turner, G. W. Rockefeller, V. J. Stutheit, W. L. Innes, Dr. Caroline Paine, Dr. C. D. Ball and C. M. Cushman.

There still remains a substantial balance in the treasury of $1047.73 after all the expenses and claims have been paid.

The success of the insurance department of the club is an assured fact and another year's growth should place it in the ranks of the notable institutions of Orange county. It is another practical demonstration of the benefits of a co-operative organization, with no stock to pay dividends on.

The Management

The management is under a board of directors consisting of the following well known business men of Orange county:

President, Clyde Walker, Santa Ana; vice president, H. O. Henderson, Anaheim; secretary, A. S. Ralph, Orange; treasurer, J. R. Porter, Orange; and directors, A. S. Bradford, Placentia; K. E. Watson, Orange; J. W. Tubbs, Santa Ana; Attorney H. J. Forgy, Santa Ana. A. K. Ford is assistant secretary in charge of the office, which is at 111½ East Fourth street, Santa Ana. THE GRINNELL "LEWIS" ELECTRIC WASHER DOES YOUR WASHING FOR ONE CENT AN HOUR

One cent an hour for current for washing and wringing. Sometimes it costs even less. And the Grinnell "Lewis" really washes. It doesn't merely bunch the clothes up in a heap. Its backward and forward motion mixes the suds and clothes far more thoroughly than you ever could by hand. The result is a clean, white, sweet-smelling washing. And you don't need to hand-rub a stitch afterward.

It can't harm your finest laces; for dasher and walls are perfectly smooth. It's easy to use; just insert the plug into your electric light socket, turn the switch, and there you are. The motor hums merrily and the washing is started. You don't need to touch it until it is ready to wring. Then simply switch the power to the ball-bearing wringer and wring your thickest pieces with perfect ease.

WHERE HUGHES STANDS

Justice Hughes is not doing much talking for himself in these strenuous days, but there are people who claim to know his position on some of the leading issues of the day. A Washington newspaper correspondent recently sent out the following summary of the views of Judge Hughes and at least the outline makes interesting reading just now:

He favors the development of a navy of the strength and character recommended by the general board.

He favors doubling the size of the standing army, the development of a reserve, and the complete federalization of the national guard.

He believes in upholding the Monroe doctrine unequivocally and in preparing the nation to defend it at all hazards.

He believes at the outbreak of the European war the nation should have been placed in a state of preparedness to defend its citizens and commerce from aggression by the belligerents.

He does not agree with Colonel Roosevelt that the United States ought to have taken a hand in the European war over the question of the alleged violation of Belgian neutrality by Germany.

He believes that the Mexican question should have been met with firm insistence upon the protection of Americans and American property from harm and the employment of force, if necessary.

He is opposed to withdrawal from the Philippines until the people of the islands are fully prepared for self-government.

With reference to national defense and the tariff, Justice Hughes says, by proxy:

We are devoted to the interests of peace and we cherish no policy of aggression. The maintenance of our ideals is our surest protection. It is our constant aim to live in friendship with all nations and to realize the aims of a free government, secure from the interruption of strife and the wastes of war. It is entirely consistent with these aims and it is our duty to make adequate provision for our defense and to maintain the efficiency of our army and navy. And this I favor.

A protective tariff is essential to the interests of our wage earners, in that it maintains our American standard of living. Hence the difference in the cost of production here and abroad is the fundamental consideration.

But I do not believe in making this policy a cover for exorbitant rates or for obtaining special privileges from the government which are not based upon consideration of the general welfare. I believe that the tariff should be revised, and in order to make the tariff schedules consistent with the principles underlying the protective policy I favor the appointment of an expert commission, so that the facts may be ascertained without delay and that congress may dispose of the matter in the fairest possible manner.

REPORTING A NATIONAL CONVENTION

It is the dream of every "cub" newspaper reporter that some day he will be assigned to report a national convention. These gatherings are the biggest news events to be covered in American life.

The task of covering one of these historic meetings is not just what the "cub" reporter or the public thinks it. The newspaper reader may suppose that the staff writer sits in his reserved seat eagerly scratching down with a pencil stub what the orators are saying. But actually he may not be in the convention hall much of the time. The Associated Press gets all the public will read of the speeches. It is for the star reporter to keep close to the real centers of action.

Any active man could go to a national convention and pick up all the gossip that could be telegraphed to his paper. The hotels are full of shouters whose business it is to feed out publicity by the yard to anyone who will listen, particularly newspaper men. Where journalistic skill comes in, is in being able to weigh his "dope" at its real value.

Covering a national convention adequately involves a wide personal acquaintance with the leaders of political life. The reporter must be able to gain their ear in this crowded and tense moment of conflict and turmoil. Ten words from a man who is helping pull the real strings will be worth more to his paper and to its readers than columns that an untrained man could pick up around the headquarters.

This shows what an intangible thing good newspaper work really is. To the public the real information and mere "hot air" look about alike. But if one reads the dispatches carefully, and notes the outcome, he will see that the trained man made shrewd forecasts of the situation, while the others were simply using the guesses of outsiders.

AT MODJESKA'S

Junior College Students Make Trip to Beautiful Former Home of Actress

Modjeska's is rapidly coming to its own as a pleasure resort, the lovely nooks in the heart of the towering mountains, making one forget all the cares and troubles of the world.

The students of the Junior College selected Modjeska's as the spot in which to enjoy a picnic on Friday evening, the company including the students who assisted in a recent entertainment.

The cool places under the sheltering trees for which the estate is noted and the freedom of the canyon with its rippling lake helped to make the outing an unusually delightful one.

After enjoying a barbecue with accompanying good things to eat, dancing was enjoyed under the trees on the new dance floor prettily lighted with electric lights.

Excellent music was furnished by the management of the resort, which promises to become more and more popular as the residents of Southern California become acquainted with it.

Those enjoying the outing were the Misses Theretta Taylor, Eula Chamberlain, Dorothy Mead, Helen Remberg, Isabelle Jayne, Muriel Lee, Arvilla Ball, Florence McArthur, Ramona Cleveland, Mary Taney, Messrs. D. K. Hammond, S. F. Deaver, T. B. Kelly, Boyd Preble, Francis Westgate, Newton Benedict, Emerald Steen, George Parker, John Ball, Maxwell Jayne, Basil Smith and Victor Meyer.

Richland Missionary Services
The W. F. M. S. of the Richland Avenue M. E. Church has secured Rev. F. D. Lee of India to address them at both services tomorrow. Dr. Lee is the husband of Mrs. Ada Lee, who has been in the East all summer addressing large audiences. They have spent many years in India as missionaries of the M. E. church, and have had thrilling experiences.

Dr. Lee is to return to India in a few weeks. Many Methodists in Santa Ana know him and his wife, and many others will be glad of a chance to hear this remarkable speaker. It is hoped a large audience will greet him as this is one of his last public addresses before returning to his foreign field.

The regular tea followed the program, refreshments being served in the dining room, with Mrs. Frank Ey chairman of the committee.

It has been requested that the program be repeated in the near future.

AUCTION DINNER

Dr. and Mrs. J. I. Clark Were Hosts to Friends Yesterday Evening

One of the charming events of the week was the auction dinner given last evening by Dr. and Mrs. J. I. Clark to a few of their friends at their home on Bush street.

Mrs. Clark chose magnificent pink sweet peas, grown in her own garden, for her marvellously beautiful centerpiece, arranging the spicy blossoms in a huge cut glass bowl. The flowers elicited much admiration.

Following the service of a dainty three-course menu at 6:30, the guests left the dining room and enjoyed a series of auction bridge games. Mrs. Addie Collins received an appreciated little gift for holding high score for ladies and Mr. Kendall one for the gentlemen.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Kendall and Mrs. Addie Collins.

FOR SWEET CHARITY

British Red Cross Society, Church Messiah, Entertains Hundreds of People

Radiating cheerful hospitality, patriotism and beauty, the magnificent grounds of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Twist on North Main street, were thrown open to more than 350 people yesterday evening, the occasion being a benefit for the Allied Red Cross societies.

The immense amount of effort necessary to obtain the effect, which thrilled all with its loveliness, was cheerfully given by the large corps of workers of the Church of the Messiah, who are interested in the welfare of the wounded and suffering in faraway Europe.

The gardens at the Twist home lent themselves charmingly to such an affair, the flowering shrubs, beautiful flowers, velvety grass and huge trees, making a setting ideal for the occasion. Electric lights and colors from vari-colored Japanese lanterns gleamed from among the foliage and a profusion of American and British flags and bunting added to the effect.

Chairs had been placed on the smooth stretch of grass in front of the veranda, which was draped with the Stars and Stripes, also floating from the potted ferns and shrubbery. Here the delightful program was carried out, opened with a lively selection by the Santa Ana Elks Band, under the direction of Frank Harris.

F. A. Blake, the efficient master of ceremonies, who was here, there and everywhere, like the proverbial flea, and responsible for much of the success of the evening, announced the participants.

Miss Geiger of Orange rendered two spirited instrumental numbers; a quartet composed of Messrs. Maurice Phillips, Alan Revell, R. R. Miles and Harry Garstang, sang two selections, "A Perfect Day" and "Love's Old Sweet Song." Miss Lalla Fagge of Sierra Madre, charmed her hearers with her violin solos, the first number being "Gypsy Dances." Mrs. Frances H. Smith, with a beautiful contralto, sang "The Thrush's Song," and Mrs. Russell Coleman, soprano, pleased with brilliant numbers. Maurice Phillips sang two rollicking solos having the war for their themes and Miss Frances Blake, also from the sister city, gave a humorous reading, "The Beauty Doctor." Miss Fagge closed the program with another violin solo.

The audience then scattered about the grounds, freely patronizing the various booths, enjoying the dancing on the spacious tennis courts and laughing over the antics of policemen Sam Stein and Leslie Williams, who dragged their various victims before Chief Justice of the Supreme Court Mit Phillips, who was not slow about sentencing the culprits to pay stiff fines. Dr. V. A. Rossiter was sentenced to dance "The Irish Washerwoman," which he did with grace and celerity, after which he retired to the punch booth, where ices and snow prevailed.

The Elks band furnished the animated dance music and the throwing of multi-colored serpentine added to the effect of the pretty scene, while bright balloons, sold by the charming balloon girl, Miss Dorothy Twist, soared above the heads of the dancers.

Near the dancing floor was the booth presided over by Mrs. Norman Hoyle and Miss Alice Parker, where hooks were baited with pretty articles and various games of chance made fun for the patrons.

At the orange booth, yellow decorations prevailed, crepe paper, nasturtiums and candles prettily shaded being effectively utilized. Here tea, coffee, sandwiches and cake were sold, the chairman being Mrs. M. L. Hinckley of Orange, assisted by Misses Blake, Thomas and Oliver Remberg.

At the fancy work booth was found Mrs. A. N. Saxton and Mrs. George R. Huddy of El Toro, dispensing their wares with dispatch and good prices. Adjoining them was the North pole, hung with ices and snow, and here lemonade and fruitade were sold to thirsty customers by Mrs. S. P. Freeman, Mrs. H. M. Robertson and Mrs. Clara Thompson.

Delicious home made candies were sold at the candy booth, which was prettily decorated, hung with lanterns and presided over by Miss Alice Bibber of Orange and Miss Constance Choules.

Despite the chill of the evening, ice cream sold well from the fern-embowered and flag-bedecked nook, attracted by the brilliant light of the big tent, which was draped with the Stars and Stripes, also floating from the potted ferns and shrubbery. Here the delightful program was carried out, opened with a lively selection by the Santa Ana Elks Band, under the direction of Frank Harris.

The play next week is "The Moment Before," in which Pauline Frederick stars.

The top photograph shows a smart broad brimmed hat in tan milan with facing and crown of flesh colored georgette crepe. A cluster of field flowers lends a dainty contrasting note and smart form of trimming. The middle photograph illustrates a smart and practical development in the way of sport hats showing the use of a wool braid and brim of gold milan straw. The arrangement of the straw braid as trimming is an interesting detail. The picture at the bottom shows a hat which is a combination of white milan and black velvet. The crown is a clever tan effect with donkey ears protruding directly forward from the crown.

Fortunes were told the curious by Madame Constantine Apogroz of Los Angeles, a professional crystal gazer, and a pretty Italian flower vender in the person of Miss Mary D. Walters of Los Angeles sold boutonniers.

SYSTEMATIZE your household expenses by opening a bank account for your wife. Give her a check book and teach her the use of it. Pay the butcher, the grocer, the baker, with a check. Then at the end of the month you'll find out just how much it costs you to run the home. When payment by check is made there never is any doubt as to whether or not a bill is paid. The check is a receipt.

Besides, a checking account will give your wife a business education. The number of ordinarily bright women who know absolutely nothing of banking is surprising. If you are a husband, father, brother, you cannot tell when death may overtake you, and it is well that your wife, daughter and sister know something of banking.

MAKE UP YOUR MIND TODAY TO GIVE YOUR WIFE A CHECK BOOK.

This is the last meeting of the year's work and an election of new officers was held. Miss Minnie C. Childs declined to be re-elected as leader again on account of a contemplated visit to Chicago, her old home, this fall. The following were elected to serve for the coming year: Mrs. J. H. Martin, leader; Mrs. Harry Lewis, first assistant, and Mrs. William Belding, second assistant; Mrs. D. L. McCharles, secretary.

Interesting current events were given to the roll call and several magazine articles were reviewed. Dainty refreshments consisting of chicken salad, sandwiches, coffee and mints were served during the social hour.

All the members were present except two. Miss Van Hise and Mrs. Ford were guests.

EDITORIAL

AN INCURABLE OPTIMIST
The man or woman under the spell of self-pity cultivates with difficulty the art of making the best of it. Dr. Frank Crane tells in one of his daily articles in the New York Globe of "An Incurable Old Optimist."

The story of this old man, Dr. Crane is eager to pass on "for" he says, "it stimulated my heart, aerated my lungs, kneaded my liver, promoted the degeneration of my spleen, roused up my various ductless glands, scared my hostile microbes and did my soul good."

It told of an old man who is just sitting around waiting for death to call and get him.

All summer he occupied a rocking chair on the front porch. In the winter the rocker was moved into the back parlor and his travels are confined to the territory lying between that chair and his bed room and that chair and the dining room. He cannot read anything, is not able to make anything and doesn't want to play anything. Yet he is cheerful all day long, never has a grouch, likes everybody, is as liked by everybody, thinks it a fine old world to live in, never indulges in want-to-go-out-in-the-garden-and-eat-worms talk, and is a God-blessed lump of sunshine in the house.

"Yep," he said, "I'm going on eighty-two, I've been baldheaded for thirty years, a widower for twenty-five, had indigestion nearly all my life, can't hear much unless folks holler at me, can't see to read, am kind o' wobbly on my feet and I've only got two teeth left, but, thank God, they hit."

Whenever I hear a big husky, sleek slob asking, "What's the use of living?" and see him ready to give up and run away, I think of that old man, with his two teeth that hit.—Literary Digest.

TUSTIN PERSONALS

Mrs. W. S. Bartlett and daughter, Mrs. James B. French, and Mr. French, Mr. and Mrs. Lanier Bartlett and son of Los Angeles are Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Nau.

Mrs. Claude Martin and Miss Lena Ebel are expected home Sunday from a trip to Hemet.

F. G. Courrier has just received the news that a younger brother, Ernest Courrier, of Minneapolis, graduated at the Chicago Medical School on June 6. An older brother, Rev. George Courrier, officiated at the exercises.

Mrs. Ruth Brown of Los Angeles is visiting her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morgan.

Mrs. Ann Swartz and Mrs. C. W. Swartz were visitors by automobile to El Toro Friday.

SURPRISE FOR THE MARCYs

At the close of school at noon on Friday Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Marcy were surprised by an invitation to attend a delicious picnic prepared by the teachers and spread under the tall sycamores on the west side of the school grounds. There were delicious salads and sandwiches, fruits and cakes and the table was centered by a huge bouquet of large pink and white sweet peas.

Having been bound together in harmony by common interest for the past year, there was much good fellowship expressed around the board. It was like a family dinner and there were many regrets at the breaking up and parting of the ways.

BEREAN CLASS

The business and social meeting of the Berean Bible class was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. L. Leiby.

An interesting part of the meeting was the study of the word "Prayer" in connection with the devotional exercises, all the ladies contributing something on the subject.

There was very little business to come before the meeting and most of the afternoon was spent socially. Mrs. Leiby's pretty little granddaughters and their mothers were guests of the club.

Various kinds of delicious cake and brick ice cream were served by the hostess and the ladies lingered long to enjoy the home-like charm of Mrs. Leiby's pretty home.

A TRIP TO RIVERSIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lambert had an enjoyable trip to Riverside Wednesday afternoon. They had with them Mr. Young and Mr. Langley, who have been doing dry campaign financial work in this district.

The party attended the Hall and Summers debate at the opera house in Riverside on Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Lambert returned home Thursday.

FLOWER MISSION DAY IS OBSERVED BY THE W. C. T. U.

The Tustin W. C. T. U. observed Flower Mission day Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Minnie C. Childs with an interesting program especially prepared by Miss Childs.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Sarah Brown, the meeting was opened by Mrs. E. J. Cranston, vice president.

The scripture reading by Miss Childs was of peculiar significance on this occasion and answers to the roll call were in scripture texts. On account of the illness of the president, the vice president was instructed to take her place as delegate to the state convention in San Diego. The Flower Mission meeting was then turned over to Miss Childs and Mrs. Vera Smith. A lovely duet was sung by Mrs. Smith and Mrs. E. J. Cranston entitled, "Give the Flowers, to the Living; If You Love Them Tell Them So."

After a short business session, there was a song by Mrs. Vera Smith, "The Mission of the Rose," and instrumental music by Mrs. P. H. Ebel followed. Interesting articles and poems were read by Mrs. C. E. Utt, Mrs. C. A. Miller, Mrs. M. E. Ladieu and Mrs. Emma Colgan, all in recapitulation of Flower Mission history. Mrs. C. F. Bennett told of a bouquet of California wild flowers given her at one time by a young lady of Tustin who has now passed to the beyond. An unusually touching story was read partly by Mrs. Harry Lewis and finished by Miss Childs, combining a temperance lesson, the message of a little bunch of "Lady Slippers" and an interesting love story.

Miss Childs' sitting room was gay with the choicest flowers to be found around Tustin, which were brought by the ladies and the overflow laden the front porch railing.

Artistic hand-painted cards decorated in pink sweet peas had been prepared by the hostess and at the close of the meeting a list of all the sick and shut-ins was taken. The lovely little cards were tied to about twenty-five bouquets and they were sent with good wishes to all the sick.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Vera Smith.

ROSEMARY CLUB

A pleasant meeting of the Rosemary Club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ray Barnes. The beautiful roses and dahlias used in decorations were especially admired. Social chat and needle work occupied the time and a very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed. The hostess served sandwiches, strawberries and whipped cream, and cake.

The guests were Mrs. Herman Cooper, Mrs. J. P. Cooper, Mrs. Rudell, Mrs. J. H. Stearns, Mrs. Trickey and Mrs. Verne Maynard.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB

The members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club were hospitably entertained by Mrs. Cood Adams at her home Tuesday afternoon.

The young mothers who are members of this club always take the children along and special attention is given to their entertainment. Their little pranks and plays are ever a source of amusement and interest and on this occasion were the source of much of the afternoon's amusement. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and a delightful time reported.

INDIANA MAN'S EXPERIENCE

—Frank Moseley, Moore's Hill, Ind., writes: "I was troubled with almost constant pains in my sides and back and attributed it to weakening of my kidneys. I got a package of Foley's Kidney Pills. Great relief was apparent after the first dose and in 48 hours all pain left me." If you have rheumatism, backache, swollen, aching joints or stiff, painful muscles, why not try Foley Kidney Pills? They stop sleep-disturbing bladder ailments, too. Rowley Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Why Take A Gambler's Chance with Your Money

Don't you know that almond growing is one of the easiest, quickest, most profitable (if you select the right locality) orchard crops in the state of California?

Do you know that according to Government reports, our consumption of nuts is increasing 15 per cent per annum? That 85 per cent of the almonds we consume are imported from Spain, Italy and France? That California produces 98 1/2 per cent of all the almonds produced in the United States?

Do you know the almond territory is more limited in area than that of the English Walnut and that Paso Robles Almonds were awarded the Gold Medal and a Bronze Plate for quality at the St. Louis Exposition? Don't you know that the TEMPLETON-PASO ROBLES district is being recognized as the coming almond district of the State? That many, many thousands of trees are being set out in this territory? In fact there is an almond boom here.

Would it interest you to know that young orchards there are producing $50.00 per acre in their third year?

Let me tell you more about the almond, because you can't get the ALMOND STORY IN A NUT SHELL!

Then there are so many other interesting facts about the Templeton-Paso Robles country that you should know, that I am sure if you drop me a one cent postal with your name and address plainly written the booklet I will send you will give you much valuable information.

Los Angeles Produce Market
Due to a slackening demand, cherry prices were a little easier yesterday and the very best grade of shipping stock was selling for 12 to 14 cents a pound. Receipts were light in the morning, but in the later hours of the day a heavy shipment was received from the north. Cantaloupes are gradually becoming more plentiful, and for the last several days the local market has assumed an easier tone. Standard were selling Friday for $2.00 to $2.25 a crate, with the other varieties unaltered. Deliverable grades of Thompson seedless grapes coming in to the city every day now, and the same are selling for $2.25. Currants are sagging, no doubt due to the fact that the abnormally high price of sugar this season is preventing the average housewife from putting up preserves, jams and jellies. Yesterday's quotations were 90 cents to $1.10 a crate. New potatoes have been cut to $1.85 and $1.90 a hundred, and sweet spuds are a trifle more abundant.

Snake Kits

Trout fishermen and hunters, trappers, campers, generally, would do well to provide themselves with snake-kits such as every big drug house can supply and most sporting goods houses also. Directions tell how to use them. They are neither costly nor cumbersome; may never be needed; but again they may save human life, or a valuable dog some time and be well worth all the trouble of carrying them for years.

TIGHTENING NUTS

In tightening nuts such as those holding the bearing caps in place, one nut should be drawn up a little and the opposite nut drawn up an equal amount. It is wrong to fully tighten one nut and then proceed with the other. This will invariably spring the metal and cause poor contact. This same method of tightening should be followed in other parts of the car.

POUNDING HOME ARGUMENTS AGAINST SALOONS, CAMPAIGN FOR DRY STATE OPENED HERE

Stirring their hearers to the depths of their hearts, the dry evangelists, known the country over as Hall and Summers, last night opened the campaign in Santa Ana for California dry.

It was a most fitting opening, and the size of the audience and the sincere attitude of those present indicate that Santa Ana next November will pile up a tremendous vote against the saloons in California.

The First Baptist church was crowded. The house was filled. Every seat was taken. The statement concerning the size of the audience is repeated three times in order to impress upon the minds of the readers of this report that at the very opening of the campaign there is a great body of Santa Anans back of the movement.

In its plan of campaign, the State Federation evidently has two objects in sending Hall and Summers upon tours of the state. The first object is to set people to thinking and to give dry partisans arguments to be used to combat whatever statements are made in defense of California wet. The second object is to stir up the people into making money contributions to the great cause. Last night Hall said it would take $250,000 to make the campaign in this state, and only $100,000 has been raised. His appeal for contributions was responded to last night by many of those present.

Straight From Shoulder
The methods used by Hall and Summers to win an audience with the power and force of the anti-saloon cause are unique. Hall, who takes the lead, recites incidents in his own life in which the awful effect of alcohol are portrayed. He was raised in a saloon. He owned a saloon. Once when he was intoxicated his wife came to him and told him that their boy was dying, and he in his drunken state refused to go to the dying child.

The meeting last night was called to order by Judge W. H. Thomas, who introduced J. P. Baumgartner, editor of the Register, as chairman. "California is going dry," declared Judge Thomas. He declared that the newspapers of Santa Ana are forces for righteousness, and in introducing the chairman, Judge Thomas said, he was a man whose newspapers had never been ashamed of the gospel of temperance, but had always fought the saloons.

In reviewing the attitude of the newspapers he has conducted, upon the dry question, Mr. Baumgartner said that the saloon question in Santa Ana is unquestionably forever settled.

A solo by Miss Cornell and a solo by Maurice Phillips expressed sentiments in keeping with the occasion.

Guilty Knowledge
"If a man is guilty knowledge that a murder is going to be committed," said Hall, "and do not tell the officers, you, under the law of the state, may be hanged. You have knowledge of the awful ruin to life that the saloons of this state are doing, and yet some of you are not giving a cent to the cause of making the state dry. Ohio remains wet today for lack of $25,000 for use in the last week of the campaign. Will California remain wet for lack of funds to properly conduct a campaign?"

Hall reviewed the activities of the European countries and Canada against the use of liquors. He told of the change of attitude of the Seattle Times, a paper that fought throwing out saloons. After the state was dry, the paper made an investigation that showed that real prosperity followed the change.

The Dialogue
The dialogue between Hall and Summers is entertaining as well as argumentative. Summers takes the part of the weak-kneed church member. He is a license commissioner. Hall takes the part of a saloonkeeper, who has his eyes open and looks the real evils of his business in the face, who makes no odds about saying that by organization and the use of brains and money the saloons remain in business, and that lack of organization and real Christian effect and sincerity are the reasons any saloon remains in the country.

It appeared from the dialogue that the self-satisfied church member, Summers, had not even taken the time to go to the polls to vote dry. Yet Summers gravely condemned the saloons.

"If your skull were cut down to fit your brain," said Hall, "you could wear a peanut shell as a Panama hat. You are a hypocrite. You church people could get rid of the saloons if you really meant business."

In the dialogue came denial that Abraham Lincoln ever said anything in favor of the saloons.

Hall said that this worry about taxes raising because of the loss of saloon licenses is a great farce. Records show that doing away with saloons lowers taxes.

"I have found that the man who worries most about taxes in relation to the saloons is the man who has no real estate excepting that under his finger nails," said Hall. "There are 20,000 men in California who are spending nearly all their money to help 30,000 barkeepers, and 200,000 poor women whose husbands are drunkards. I'll tell you what to do with the 30,000 barkeepers. When the 200,000 men quit supporting the 30,000 barkeepers, the 200,000 women will be able to send their washing to laundries, and that will require 30,000 more employees at the laundries."

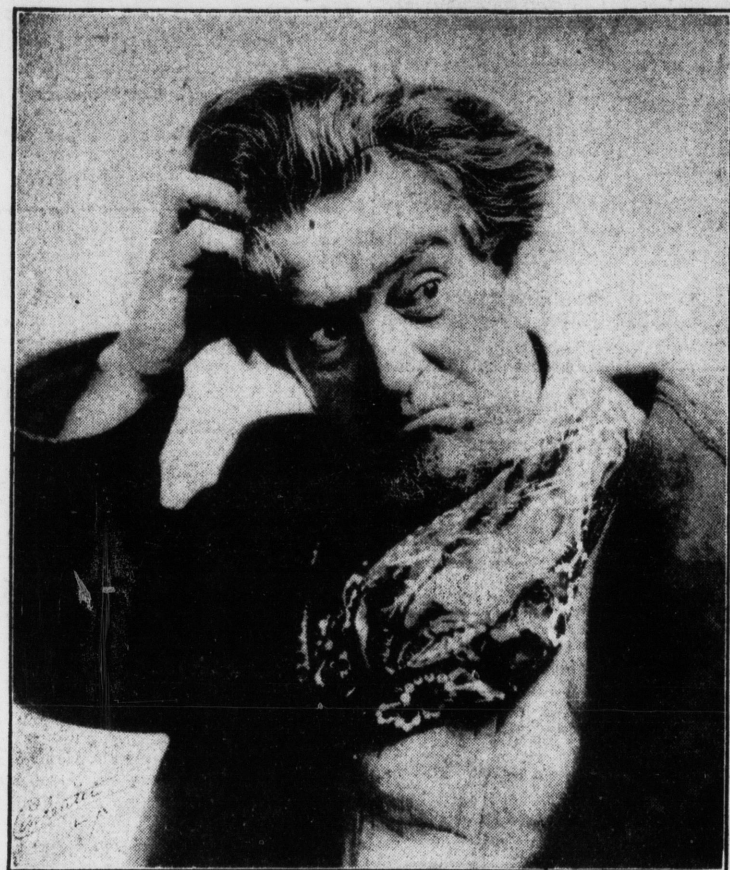

"Personal Liberty"
The question of the interference with personal liberty was given a raking.

"Personal liberty?" asked Hall. "Yes, personal liberty that poisons boys, and tears the hearts out of poor weeping women, and ruins the lives of men and blackens the souls of girls—that is what personal liberty in relation to this saloon question means. This same personal liberty caused the shooting of Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley."

Hall described pitilessly the danger of diseases being passed from mouth to mouth through the careless manner in which saloons wash their glasses.

"Why have we got our saloons?" asked the saloon man. "We have them because we have brains, and use them. You have got a two-cylinder brain, and one cylinder is missing. See the funeral march of ruined men, a procession that would reach from here to New York. See the white faces of fallen women. Think of the prisoners in San Quentin. You can't close saloons by shooting off your mouth, but you can do it by voting."

BASEBALL GAME RECEIPTS WILL GO TO LOCAL CHARITIES

The proceeds from the Santa Ana Long Beach Ad Club baseball game, which has been arranged for next Thursday afternoon on Poly field, beginning at 2:30, will be devoted to local charities, including the Associated Charities, the Day Nursery, and the work of the Salvation Army.

This was the decision of the baseball enthusiasts, who gathered last night, to make plans for organizing the Santa Ana team for Saturday afternoon games during the summer. The meeting was held at the feed store of R. R. Smith, and among those represented at the meeting were "Shorty" Smith, Lee Brown, "Jug" Walters, "Pete" Duham, "Pete" West, "Teddy" Witt, "Brownie" West, "Art" Freeman, "Pap" Woodward, "Chief" Myers, George Parker, Bernard Parker, "Spud" Morrison and "Bill" Warren.

All were enthusiastic for the Santa Ana team, and at least two evenings practice will be held early next week for the opening game of the season on Thursday, when early comers to the Fiesta de Luz will be entertained.

It was decided to make the admission charge to the games 25 cents, with a special rate of 15 cents for high school students.

carried out when Long Beach city officials objected on the ground that if a fire in Seal Beach and one in the east end of Long Beach should occur simultaneously, the pressure from the six-inch main would be inadequate for both.

To overcome this difficulty, the Long Beach solons suggested that Seal Beach erect a big tank to store enough water to take care of such an emergency should one arise. The Bay Side Land Company has not yet acted on the proposition.

FISHING IN LITTLE BEAR IS VERY POOR

Fishing in Little Bear Valley is nil.

J. A. Turner, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants' National Bank, and a party of friends returned Thursday evening from the valley. There were eight members of the party and the total catch for the three or four days was between twenty and twenty-five. The average size of the catch was from ten to twelve inches, two or three being caught measuring fifteen inches.

"The trip to the valley is a delightful one," said Mr. Turner this morning, "but fishing is no good. There seems to be plenty of fish in the lake but they will not bite. The waters are alive with flies and bugs, and the fish will not take the hook."

Those composing the party were J. A. Turner, E. C. Frambles, Ed Larter, Jeff Lewis, Henry Luther, Ben E. Turner, E. R. Curtis and Fred Mallett.
